

Bryanston Education Summit 2018: Provisional programme

Session	Elder Concert Hall	Coade Hall	David Jones Lecture Theatre	Wigglesworth Room
1 (09:30-10:10)		Formative and summative assessment: getting the balance right Daisy Christodoulou
2 (10:20-11:00)	Developments in education and inspection Amanda Spielman	High challenge, low threat and a demanding curriculum Mary Myatt	ISI – where are we now? Kate Richards	Great expectations: Leading an effective SEND strategy in schools David Bartram
3 (11:10-11:50)	The story of Michaela Katharine Birbalsingh	Unleashing great teaching David Weston	Don't stop teaching to the test (it's the test that needs to change) Crispin Weston	How the Institute for Research in Schools supports teachers and students doing cutting-edge research Becky Parker
Lunch (11:50-12:45)	Please make your way to the Dining Hall for lunch
4 (12:45-13:25)	The strategic challenges that MATS need to meet over the next three years David Carter	Making great decisions: practical ways leaders at all levels can develop their decision-making habits Andy Buck	Taking curriculum seriously Christine Counsell	Boys will be brilliant Gary Wilson
5 (13:35-14:15)	Knowledge vs. skills curriculum Mary Bousted	Critical thinking for the 21st century Tom Chatfield	Using virtual reality as an effective learning tool Paul Turner	The Assessment Lead Programme: why we made it, how it works, what effect it has Stuart Kime and Jack Deversen
Break (14:15-14:30)	Refreshments will be available in the marquee
6 (14:30-15:10)	Where schools and technology go next Ian Fordham	Cross words – mental health and language Natasha Devon	The seven paradoxes of education Lucy Rycroft-Smith and Jean-Louis Dutaut	Panel session: Too much, too young? A discussion with prep school heads
7 (15:20-16:20)	Panel session: What next for schools?

Please note that speakers and sessions may be subject to change owing to circumstances outside our control