

Duncan Johnson (C '59)

While out sailing with Lizzie in Fowey, where he spent much of his childhood, Duncan had a stroke and died in hospital shortly afterwards. On retirement from the law, Duncan took up rowing again with his usual passion, and was out three days before he died. A wonderful larger than life person, who energised everyone around him, Duncan leaves Lizzie, four daughters and eight grandchildren.

Martin Gundry (Sa '61)